Gerard.

Nathaniel Spencer, son Gerard & Hannah (——) Spencer, was born about 1658, died at Haddam, Ct., before 1722; mar. about 1681 Lydia Bailey, dau. of John & Lydia (Backus) Bailey, who was living June 17, 1696 when her father made his will, but was deceased before Jan. 2, 1728-9 when the estate of Thomas Smith of Haddam was distributed to the devisees. He is said to have mar. 2nd., after Feb. 1689 Hannah ———, but as Lydia was living in 1696, this is evidently an error.

Thomas Smith, Haddam, d. 2 Nov. 1674. Inv. £46:09:08. Taken by William Clark, Symon Smith, James X Wells. Will dated 22 Sept. 1674.

I, Thomas Smith of Haddam, do make this my last Will and Testament as followeth: I give my Homelott, Orchard & Fences about it, to the wife of John Bailey, and to her children after her, and also my Freehold on the West side of the River. I give to the wife of Daniel Brainwood all my household Stuffe and Moveables that by this Will are not otherwise disposed of, and my Hay to Daniel Brainwood. I give my tobacco to James Welles. I give my Steers to Nicholas Noyes. I give my Cow and my gunn to John Smith. I give my Hogg to John Bailey sen. I give my turnips equally betwixt James Welles, Daniel Cone, Joseph Stennard and John Bailey. I give what Timothy Spencer oweth me to Daniel Cone. I make John Bailey sen and Daniel Braimwood my Executors to see this my Will fulfilled and to take care of my Buryall, on which I would have 40 shillings expended, 30 shillings of which I would have John Bailey allow out of what is given to him, and Daniel Brainwood the other 10 shillings. I would also that James Welles out of the Tobacco I gave him pay what I owe to John Merrells, which is about 10 shillings. I give my wearing clothes and Bed clothes to Steuen Luxford. And this is my last Will and Testament, excepting my Debts to be paid as is expressed on the other side of the paper. (not signed) pg. 106-7.
Witness: Nicholas Noyes, George Gates.

On the Unadilla River a large family of the name of Spencer settled ... so large indeed that a part of that neighborhood was known as Spencer Street. Father was Jonathan and he had a son Orange. Settled before Revolution. Following them were several families to whom they were related by marriage, sisters of Jonathan being wives of Jeremiah Burch?, Jonathan Stark?, and Jeremiah Thornton? Came soon after Spencers and from same locality in Montgomery Co.

Another relative of Jonathan Spencer was Jalleal Billings, son of one of his sisters, his mother had for 2nd. husband Enos Yale.

To this same valley, near the mouth of the river, some time afterwards came another family named Spencer. Their ancestor, Amos Spencer was originally from Conn. and had served in the revolution. He had settled in Town of Maryland. On the Unadilla river settled two of his family, Simeon and Porter, who afterwards came to the village leaving descendants, some of whom are still living there.

The Pioneers of Unadilla Village, 1784-1840 by Francis Whiting Halsey, 1902.

Information received on Feb 11 1955 from Mr. H. Dorsey Spencer, Greene, Chenango Co. N.Y.

My great-great-great-grandfather, Jonathan Spencer, took part in a temporary settlement in what is now Otsego County about 1769. This settlement is the subject matter of a short story by James Fenimore Cooper, entitled "Wyandotte or The Hutted Knoll". He went back to Warrenbush, Now the Fifth Ward of Amsterdame, N.Y. where he served in the Revolution, 3rd Tryon County Regiment, as also did his oldest son, Orange Spencer, my gfeat-great-grandfather. Orange received a pension for his service and the pension file has in it hte leaves from the family bible having thereon the births, marriages and deaths of Oranges line, with a brief reference to his father's family.

After the Revolution, 1784, Jonathan and his family, including Orange, settled on the Unadilla in the town of Unadilla, about opposite Rockdale in Chenango County. The road they settled on was known as Spencer Street and may still be so known. It runs up the east side of the Unadilla River. Jonathan and his second wife, Martha Keach Spencer, are buried in anold cemetery on a part of his original settlement. You will find references to both Jonathan and Orange in Francis Whiting Halsey's "Histroy of Unadilla" and also in his "The Olf New York Frontier."

Jonathan had four sons by his first wife and nine by his second wife, and one daughter. Eleven of his sons grew to maturity as also did his daguther Mercy. There are still some of the descendants living in and around Sidney. One was in the milk business there the last time I was there. These are practically all descendants of sons by the second wife. I have only followed down the Orange Spencer line, first son by the first wife, with incidental excursions into lines of the other sons by the first wife, Ruth Mudge Spencer, namely Amos Spencer Micah Spencer and Jonathan Lee Spencer.

Although Jonathan Lee Spencer was lving when his father died in June 1821, I have not located any of his descendants. Sone of Amos's descendants were living in and around Sayre, Pa., and Micah moved to Illionois, where he joined the Latter Day Saints or Mormons and his dghtr went on with them to Utah where she has left quite a number of descendants.

Adeliza Lauretta Truman, dau. of John Frank & Martha (Spencer) Truman was born Jan. 6, 1814 near Pittsburgh, Pa., d. Apr. 1, 1890 at Willow Creek, near Idaho Falls, Idaho, mar. 1st., Mar. 22, 1831 Henry Verveelen Barnum, b. Mar. 2, 1812 at Charlotteville, Norfolk Co., Ont., Canada, d. July 18, 1865 at Covington, Ky., while in service during Civil War. In 1838 he participated in the so-called Patriot War and joined an ill-fated expedition to conquer part of Canada; was captured, tried and sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor in British penal colony in what is now Tasmania, in the Pacific Ocean. After a little less than 10 years, however, he was pardoned by Queen Victoria and returned to Michigan. There he found that his wife, with whom he had been unable to communicate during all this period, had given him up for dead and had just remarried. Notwithstanding their continued affection for each other, they decided her newly born baby by her 2nd. marriage needed her care more than their own children, who were now 14 and 11, so Adeliza Lauretta went to Utah with the L.D.S.Church and Henry settled in Ypsilanti, Michigan. She mar. 2nd., Charles Chumway.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter relative to Jabez Spencer, a soldier of the Revolutionary War.

The data contained herein were obtained from the papers on file in the Revolutionary War claim for pension, W.22295, based upon the military service of Jabez Spencer in that war.

Jabez Spencer was born in Old Haddam, Connecticut, in 1757, day, month, and the names of his parents are not shown. When about four years old he moved with his father to Spencertown, New York, and when about seventeen years old moved to New Lebanon, Columbia County, New York.

While a resident of New Lebanon, New York, Jabez Spencer, enlisted June 4, 1775 and served nine months as private in Captain White's Company, Colonel Van Schaick's New York Regiment. He enlisted in March 1776 for one year as private in Captain John Stevens' Company, Colonel Burrall's Connecticut Regiment, was taken prisoner at the battle of The Cedars, in Canada, held fourteen days, and then released upon condition that he would not take up arms for three months immediately following; at the end of said three months he rejoined his regiment and served until the expiration of the term for which he enlisted. He then moved to Granville, Washington County, New York, and in May 1779 enlisted and served nine months as private in Captain Parmelee Allen's Company, Colonel Ebenezer Allen's Vermont Regiment. In the spring of 1781 he enlisted and served nine months as private in the same company and regiment.

About four years after the Revolution he moved to Whitehall, about six years later he returned to Granville, about two years later moved to Crown Point, about two years later he moved to Delaware County, New York and about two years later he moved to Cayuga County, New York.

He was allowed pension on his application executed November 2, 1832, while a resident of Cato, Cayuga County, New York.

He died June 7, 1835, in Cato, New York.

Soldier married March 21, 1783 in Granville, New York, Patience (her maiden name not designated). She was born April 10, 1765, place, and the names of her parents are not designated.

Soldier's widow, Patience Spencer, was allowed pension on her application executed May 2, 1840, at which time she was a resident of Oato, New York.

In 1833, Solomon Farnsworth, a brother-in-law, of soldier, was living in Fleming, Cayuga County, New York, and was then aged seventy years "and upwards".

In 1840 one Solomon Spencer was residing in Oato, New York, his age and relationship to the family not given. There are no further family data.

This is the record of the only Jabez Spencer, all spellings of the names searched, that is found on the Revolutionary War records of this office.

In order to obtain the date of last payment of pension, the name of person paid and possibly the date of widow's death, you should apply to The Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, Records Division, Washington, D. C., and cite the following data: "Patience Spencer, widow of Jabez Spencer, Certificate No. 5590, issued July 3, 1840, rate $80.00 per annum, commenced March 4, 1836, Act of July 7, 1838, Albany New York Agency".

Joel and wife are buried in the Rose & Chamberlain Cem. in Town of Maryland, Otsego Co., N. Y.

The headstone of Sarah's grave in Maryland Cemetery reads: Consecrated to the memory of Sarah consort of Joel Spencer by Nathaniel, Eli, Elihu, Roxanna, Betsey & Sally Rose, her children, departed this life 20th. Apr. 1805 aged 57 years.

First settlement of which there is any authentic evidence was in 1790. This year there came from Columbia Co., Israel & Eliphas Spencer, brothers; Phineas Spencer, a cousin & Elisha Chamberlin and settled near the center of the now Town of Maryland and the Maryland station on the Albany & Susquehanna R.R.

The two latter settled on "States land" on the hill about 1¼ miles north of east from the Maryland station. Eliphas Spencer built a house about 3/4 miles east from the station at the foot of the hill some 10 rods north of the present highway. the Site is now marked by some square and smooth faced rocks that then formed his cellar walls, a little north of the house, called the Jared M. Chamberlin house. Near these rocks there is now standing a Lombardy poplar which was brought as a whip stick from Columbia Co. and there stuck in the ground.

Israel Spencer settled on the south side of Schenevus creek on lands that were long afterwards occupied by his descendants.

The first mills were built in 1794 and were called the "Spencer Mills" near where now is Maryland station on Albany & Susquehanna R. R. The grist mills were built by Israel and Eliphas Spencer.

Phineas Spencer was the first carpenter and joiner in town, the first stone mason, chair and cabinet maker, plow and coffin maker.

A tavern was opened and kept by Amos Spencer about 3 miles west of Maryland station and at the place where the late Uriah Spencer was born and died. The sign, at the time of this writing, is still in existence, and bears the date of 1802.

Enos J. Spencer was the first doctor of the alopathic school. The first post-office was at Maryland station and Enos J. Spencer was the first postmaster.

The first threshing machine was invented, patented and applied to use by Gershom Bostwick and Harry Spencer.

Whereas Israel Spencer and 29 others have by petition represented to the Legislature that they incline to form a compact settlement on a part of the unappropriated land lying the the County of Otsego, and between the lands heretofore granted to Walter Franklin and others, and Alex. M'Kee and others, and shall cause the same to be surveyed.

Mary Jane, the above, was my great grandmother. She died when I was about 4 years old. Her daughter, my grandmother, died when I was 7. I never heard my mother, who died 2 years ago, ever mentioned any further back than Ruth Ann Taft, who was a daughter of Nehemiah Spencer. I found some old letters, over 100 years old, which set me going on my ancestors.

Franklin Co., N. Y.

Brother J. S. lived in C. 20 years ago since that I have not heard from him if the postmaster has any information of him he is requested to forward this letter to him or to some of his family if he is not living.

It is a long time since I have heard any thing from you whether you are yet living or if you are whether you live where you did when I last heard from you or whether this letter will ever find you. Nearly twenty years have elapsed since you wrote to me which is the last news I have had from you. You were then living in the town of Chateaugay, Franklin Co., N. Y. ---If you get this letter you will please to write to me directly and inform me of all your circumstances of your place of residence your family and all your concerns for I feel deply interested in all the affairs of all my brothers and sisters and as you may not have heard from any of them lately I will give you what information I can of them. I had a letter from brother Joel about three years ago he was still living in the town of Rome, Athens Co., Ohio Brother Jason lives in Medina Co., O. His son wrote to me from Athens where he was attending the university as a medical student--Our brother Asa is dead--His son Asa A. Spencer wrote me in July and informed me that his father died the first of March last--that his mother was living with him and 5 or 6 more of the children in that town Barre, Orleans Co., N. Y. Our brother Eliel lives in Ontario County I expect a visit from him this fall---I have not heard from Josiah this good many years the last I heard from him he was in Newark, N. J. he follows shoemaking his health was poor, I saw both our sisters last spring they live in Preble in Cortland Co. Asenath lived with her adopted daughter whose husband was Nathan A. Taylor Jerusha's son --They are both widows and in low circumstances.

I enjoy tolerable good health but my wife is out of health She is troubled with nervous affections which render her very uncomfortable. We live with our second daughter whose husbands name is Henry O. Hayes If you write to me please to direct your letter to Triangle postoffice Broome County when you write to me I wish you to inform me how many children you have and their names and time of their births for I have a record in which I want to insert them.

Days months and years pass by almost unheeded and hurry me on from infancy to age with astonishing rapidity if I live till the 27th of Nov. next I shall be 68 years old O that I might so number my days as to apply my heart of wisdom that I could adopt the language of the Apostle I have fought a good fight I have finished my course I have kept the faith that so I may receive the crown of righteousness which is laid up for all those who love the Saviour's appearing --- I followed the business of keeping school until I was 45 then on account of other avocations was forced to give over until eight years ago I engaged again in the same business for six years when on account of ill health of my wife was forced to give over again and now as my sun is low in the western hemisphere I know not what awaits me in my decline of life --- I wrote many thots to you in my youth fraught with folly and best consigned to oblivion but now I wish to correspond on more serious subjects --- I have been brought to realize that childhood and youth are vanity and to regret that I spent so much time and opportunity of getting and imparting instruction in vanity and folly which ought to have been spent in the service of God and the honour of His cause.

I have long since made a profession of religion and maintained a standing in the church but when I look back upon my past life I find nothing to boast of but much to humble my pride many very many things to repent of -- innumerable things to be thankful for and losses trials disappointments and afflictions to be numbered amongst my greatest blessings and I can truly say with the Patriarch Few and evil have the days of the years of my life been In my youth I experienced two very narrow escapes from death thro' the providence of God which the limits of my letter will not allow me to describe — But one deliverance which I ascribe to divine providence I must mention--While keeping school in Cairo, Greene Co. was conversant with a class of young men before I was married who disbeleived the biblo and discarded all revealed religion they had adopted Pains age of reason for their standard and endeavored to diffuse their sentiments as far as they could --they frequently urged me to read the book but I refused until at length I consented and went into the school-house one sabbath day and read it through. While I was reading tho' I had always beleived the Bible felt some misgivings in my mind I reasoned this with myself-- If the bible is true it is of the utmost consequence to beleive it--but if it is not true then I have been burdened with fears and frightened with bugbears to no purpose and as I drew towards the latter part of the book was almost persuaded to adopt the sentiment and throw off all fears of anything after death--I said I have always been in bondage but shall now be set free — I thought now is the time to make up my mind -- but when I came within two or three pages of the last end of the book I began to tremble and my whole frame was agitated I said if I adopt these sentiments I shall very likely live and die in the beleif of them and the consequence will be fatal---and as I read the last page my [illegible] increased until I finished the last sentence closed the book and struck it down [illegible] force on the table and said it will not do for me--I thank God that I was [illegible] adopting that fatal error--Ibeleive the scriptures and trust in Christ alone for salvation thro' repentance and faith which purifies the heart And now dear brother if you should ever receive this letter may the grace of God prepare your heart and mine that we may be found at the right hand of the Judge when He shall assemble all nations before his bar--

From your affectionate brother

To Jonah Spencer

Dear Brother I received yours of the 12th Dec. and was very glad to hear from you again and from your family but did not learn from your letter whether you have a wife living or not and thought likely there was a mistake in the date of your youngest son 1832 -- I fear I shall intrude upon your patience in writing to you so soon again & by sending a double letter but hope you will bear with my folly this time for I wish to give the children some account of their relatives which they would not be likely to get from any other source

I hope you will not take it unkind that I write you on the subject of religion for it is a subject (fills) my heart and I hope that you do not treat it with lightness I know you are acquainted with follies and vanities of my youth and may think my waywardness might silence me on that subject but I wish to take the place of a humble penitent and supplicant and intreat you to take another look at the subject as in the presence of that God who tries all our thoughts words and works and will bring everything into Judgement And now dear brother I pray you to look well to the ground on which you build your hopes for eternity and not rest on sandy foundation for a mistake now will be fatal--I have frequently conversed with those who call themselves universalists and find they have a different system beleive they generally beleive in the divinity of Christ and explode the idea of a future Judgement but both Christ and His apostles teach these points Christ said I and my father are one He likewise gave a description of the Judgement the 25th of Mathew. The Apostle John in his first chapter says "The word was with God and the word was God" and Paul in his epistles frequently ascribes to Christ the atributes of God and he frequently refers his hearers to the day of Judgement as in Romans 14-10 and in other places. Christ has said "The hour is coming in that which all that are in their graves shall hear his voice and come forth they that have done good to the resurrection of life and they that have done evil to the resurrection of damnation." I will quote a few more texts to show that neither Christ or his apostles preached universal salvation-- Math 24-13 and 10-22 "Buth he that endureth to the end shall be saved" and in 8 -11-12 "And I say unto you that many shall come from the east and from the west and shall sit down with Abraham & Isaac & Jacob in the kingdom of heaven But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness. Luke 12-5 Fear him which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell. Acts 2-47 And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved Eph 5-5 no such characters hath any inheritance in the kingdom of God & of Christ ---I could quote a great many texts and comment upon them but I fear you will not have patience to read them and am well aware that universalists have a way to evade the force of any argument which may be brought against them but the truth of God will stand and none will be able to evade that when he applies it to the conscience I have no doubt but uncle Increase G---- has plied you with much more forcible arguements than I am capable of I wish that you would read his letter again.

You suggested that the impressions made on my mind in early life had conduced to forming creed — I acknowledge that my mind was early impressed with the subject of religion but to my shame those impressions were greatly worn off in the next stage of life. How much the instructions of my parents and grandparents have been blessed as a means of bringing me to a sense of my fallen state and of opening my eyes to see the danger I was in of losing my soul I know not or how ( ) their prayers (for I am persuaded that they have prayed to the God of all mercy for me and you and all their numerous family of wayward sons) the benefits of which we reap now while their bodies are mouldering under the mossy sod. I have great reason to be thankful that I was born and bred up in a christian family. But I beleive my mind is made up on the subject of religion from mature deliberation and a sound judgement and I hope for salvation thro this faith in Christ and beleif of the truth and sanctification of the spirit. I do not feel about treading in the steps and following the example of my pious ancestors and am more afraid of disgracing their memory by my conduct than of disgracing myself by following their good examples Yet I rest my beleif on the scriptures as a revelation from God and not on the word or practice of any man dead or living aside from divine revelation. -- And now dear brother as I am about to take my leave of you I feel a strong affection for you & those dear children whom God has graciously given you if you should at last miss of salvation & be the means of leading them in the way that only leads to ruin the consequences will be infinitely fatal to you and to them for the savior has said what is a man profited if he gain the whole world and loose his soul or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul And as we are about to part I warn you solemnly but tenderly that your scheme of universal salvation will fail. I feel as confident of it as I do of any thing else that may be gathered from Scripture and that nothing will stand us in stead in the trying hour but repentance toward God and faith in Jesus Christ — We have nearly got thro our pilgramage here on earth. We have compared with the generality of mankind lived to a good old age and I pray that we might each one be enabled to say with the apostle "I have fought a good fight I have finished my course I have kept the faith" ----- I shall close with a letter to the children which will make you acquainted with my family affairs. I subscribe myself your affectionate brother

To Gustavus V. Spencer & brothers & sisters

Dear Children I take my pen to write a few lines to you to let you know that I enjoy a tolerable state of health at present except your aunt who is troubled with a nervous complaint which renders her very uncomfortable I must be very brief as to family affairs. my children are all married but one that is Ruth Ann My youngest son Asa went last summer to Michigan we have heard from him this winter that he was married there I have sent you enclosed a genealogical tree which will give you as much information of the family with which you are connected as I can give you. Whether you are pleased with it or not I know not. If you will take the trouble to read the back side of the picture you may judge of the singular turn of your old white headed uncle I do not mean to use lightness with you for there are always serious subjects enough to occupy our minds I wish you prosperity. I hope you will so demean yourselves as to be obedient to your parents- useful in the family good members of society and ornaments to the church of Christ------- Gustavus wished me to give him some account of the country here -- There is nothing very inviting either in the soil or climate the winters are long and dreary the snow is now nearly 4 feet deep--Crops are not commonly heavy especially wheat we raise but little The inhabitants here generally keep cows and make butter for market but this winter so far has been very tedious for cattle -- I do not know exactly where your uncle Eliel lives--I should be glad to see some of you here if you should ever come the fall of the year is the best time while the canals are open. If you get this letter and have patience to read it I hope you will write to me again for I shall be glad to hear from you again.

This from your affectionate uncle fay of light. I ( ) the reach of grace was pastThat I had sinned beyond the reach of mercy.---That I had commited the unpardonable sin & there was no mercy for me I continued in this state of mind for several days and the agitation of my mind in my wakeful hours disturbed my sleep and caused many frightful dreams --- I viewed myself as a great sinner in the sight of God and that it would be perfectly just in him if I were sent to hell forever. I do not recollect anything very distinctly respecting the state of my mind for some time but that horror subsided and I never felt it afterward. I felt very anxious for the salvation of my soul and prayed for pardon of my sins but had not the horror which I felt before. Before spring we moved over to the west side of the N. river I became more conversant with other boys and in a measure forgot the concerns of my soul----- I had just entered my 17th year when my father died and my mother went back to Green river. My health was poor for nearly a year I lived with my grandfather and gave my mind considerably to study and spent my time like other thoughtless boys -- The fall that I was 20 went up to Pittstown and kept school that winter & staid there the next summer. Went home. Studied the surveyors art and in the month of March went 4 weeks to Dr. Porters school and studied English grammer and Geography and the next winter went 4 months to that school and studied Latin. I have abridged very much & must break off abruptly.

PS You will redily see in the picture that the main trunk represents my father-the principal branches his children-the secondary branches his grandchildren & in my branch my grandchildren This mark (X) those that are dead

On the back of the "tree" picture

Since I know that you used to be fond of history I have here given you some extracts of a very imperfect sketch of what I could collect of the history of our family & a few incidents of my own unprofitable life-- My great grandfather removed from the town of East Haddam, Conn. with his sons Simeon Joel Nehemiah Ithamar & Ahimaas and settled in a place to which they gave the name of Spencertown (it was in the town of Canan in Columbia Co.) The country was then entirely new & they were much harased by the indians they built a kind of fort and kept watch in the night and on one occasion were forced to leave their homes and go to Sheffield in Mass. & stay nearly a year They improved their lands in Spencertown and my grandfather Joel Spencer bought a tract of land in a valley east of there on a stream they called Green river where he in the course of several years built two saw mills and two grist mills all before my remembrance
My great grandfather died before my remembrance in the 85th year of his age-- My great grandmother I remember very well have seen her often she died in her 85th year My grandfather's brother Simeon died of the smallpox about 60 My grandfather was intered in Maryland Otsego Co. his children were Isreal Asa Mary Jerusha Desire Eunice John Dorcas. Dorcas is the only one now living. I have been to his grave it is ornamented with a beautiful white marble with this inscription "To the memory of Dea. Joel Spencer who departed this life Feb. 25, 1806 in the 87th year of his age" with this epitaph

His hands while they his alms bestowed
His glorious future harvest sowed
The sweet remembrance of the Just
Like a green root survives and bears
A train of blessings to his heirs
While dying nature sleeps in dust

His brother Ithamur is intered in the same town but not in the same burying ground he died in the 92 year of his age. Ithamur's son Amos married my fathers sister Dorcas they live in Maryland and have a numerous family chiefly in the same town.
I cannot learn whether my father was born in E. Haddam or not. His children were Joel born May 2nd 1766 Nehemiah Nov. 27th 1767 Jonah Jan. 1770 Asa March 20, 1772 Jason August 1774 Eliel C. Oct. 1777 Asenath Sept. 1779 Josiah March 14th 1782 Jerusha August 1784
My father was in low circumstances and moved several times as I remember-- The revolutionary war was commenced & he went into the service & I went & lived with my grandfather about five years --- Was conversant with my cousin Cyrus Graves. We conversed on the subject of religion my mind was filled with extreme anxiety about my future state I thought the day of judgement was at hand and I feared that I should be found at the left hand of theJudge How old I was when these feelings first came on I cannot tell it is almost the first thing that I can remember distinctly ---- My father moved to Pittstown & the fall that I was 14 was much alone my father and three oldest brothers being from home---my mind at this time was de ply affected so that I could not rest and tho' I said nothing to anybody about it yet it seemed that I could not live I thought that the pains of hell had got hold on me & I feared that I should sink into the bottomless pit. I had had such exercises of my mind from my earliest childhood by turns but they were now more intence than ever before --- I thought my time of probation was short and if I did not find mercy now my doom would soon be forever fixed beyond the reach of mercy
Tho my mind was not uniformly so distressed yet I had no consolation. I had intervals when I did not think much on the subject but when I did it was with gloomy forebodings & my periods of thoughtfulness were recollected with horror. But one day I remember being exceding elated with joy. I thought my sins were all pardoned and my title to heaven made clear but why it was so I could not tell or what evidence I had of its being so but a strange presumption in my mind that that was the case---But those feelings continued but a short time. My sky was soon overcast with impenetrable clouds which could admit no (John) Spencer with his wife, 5 sons (and 3 daughters and their families), came from East Haddam, Conn. to Columbia County, N. Y. and settled at what was afterwards known as Spencertown (about 1756-1760), this is on the Green River in what is now the township of Austerlitz. (John) Spencer died, date unknown, at the age of 85. His wife, who survived him several years, died, date unknown, at the age of 85. The names of his daughters and their husbands are not given in the letters written by Nehemiah Spencer to his brother, Jonah, in 1835 and 1836.

From Miss Gertrude Fritz, Cincinatus, N. Y.

(Taken from a journal written by Nehemiah Spencer loaned to Miss Fritz by Mrs. Lottie Carr.)

It would be pleasing to me if I could by history trace back the line of my ancestors to an early period but as no such history has come within my knowledge I will here collect a few things which from scripture & other sources appear to me probable to have transpired in the history of my ancestors down to the time of which I have had information from others & so on till the events come within my own recollection. First it is certain we are of the stock of Adam, of the posterity of Noah & very probable of the family of Japheth. They our ancestors were likely engaged in the building of Babel & suffered in the confusion of the language & in the dispersion of the nations perhaps settled somewhere in Europe & in the process of time moved to the Island of England & from thence migrated to north America. From whence they got the name of Spencer or what is their coat of arms I cannot tell but my great grand-father as near as I can learn lived in East Haddam, Conn. about the year 1730, and from thence he with 4 or 5 of his sons came to while the country was entirely new to a place which they gave the name Spencertown. They were frequently harrassed by the indians & on one occasion were forced to leave their dwellings and go to Sheffield in the state of Mass. & stay nearly a year. After living some years in Spencertwon my grandfather Joel Spencer bought a tract of land east of Spencertwon on a stream which they called Greenriver & built two sawmills & two gristmills on it and in the course of several years all before my remembrance. My great grandfather died before my remembrance but my great grandmother I have seen frequently. They both died in the 85th year of their age. My grandfather's children were Israel, Asa, Mary, Jerusha, Desire, Eunice, John and Dorcas. Dorcas is the only one now living. My Grandfather died in Maryland, Otsego county. I have been to his grave. It is ornamented with a beautiful white marble with this inscription: To the memory of Deacon Joel Spencer who departed this life Feb. 25th. 1806, in the 87th year of his age. With this epitaph:

His hands while they his alms bestowed
His glorious future harvest sow'd
The sweet remembrance of the just
Like a green root revives & bears
A train of blessings to his heirs
While dying nature sleeps in dust.

My grandfather's brother Thamer (Ithamar) died in the 92nd year of his age.

His son Amos married my father's sister, Dorcas. They live in the town of Maryland & have a numerous family chiefly living near them. My father Asa Spencer was born (as near as I can learn) March 20, 1744. His children were Joel born May 2, 1766; Nehemiah Nov. 27, 1767; Jonah Jan. 1770; Asa March 20, 1772; Jason Aug. 1774; Eliel Crosby Jan. 29, 1777; Asenath Sept. 1779; Josiah Mar. 14, 1782; Jerusha Aug. 1784. I was born (as I have been informed) in the settlement near Greenriver.

The Revolutionary War came on & my father went into the Army. He was in low circumstances. I went and lived with my grandfather about five years. My mind had been exercised on the subject of religion from my earliest childhood. How old I was when these feelings first came on I cannot tell. It is almost the first thing I can remember distinctly. Whilst living with my grandfather was conversant with my cousin Cyrus Graves about six months older than myself. We talked much on the subject of religion & my mind was filled with a deep anxiety about my future state. I thought the day of judgment was at hand and I feared that I should be found at the left hand of my Judge. Was very fond of learning psalms by heart & repeated them frequently when alone especially the 50th Psalm and this verse —

Thron'd on a cloud our God shall come
Bright flames &c- - -

Was greatly terrified by thunder for I thought it presaged the day of judgment. Used to attend to secret prayer & sometimes Cyrus & I would go away and pray together. But went home to live with my father & was more with other boys & I thought less on these things.

My father moved to Pittstown, Renss. Co., & the fall I was 14 was much alone, my father & older brother being gone from home my business was to get wood & do chores at home.

I did not think much on the subject but when I did it was with gloomy forebodings and my intervals of thoughtlessness was recollected with horror; but one day I remember being exceedinly elated with joy. I thought my sins were all pardoned and my title to heaven made sure but why it was so I could not tell or what evidence I had of its being so but a strong persuasion in my mind that that was the case. Felt relived from all fears. Thought I should never sin again or if I did it would not imputed to me. But these feelings continued but a short time. My sky was soon overcast with impenetrable clouds which could admit no ray of light. I thought my day of grace was past - that I had sinned beyond the reach of mercy and in presuming that my sins were pardoned and I should never sin again had committed the unpardonable sin and therewas no mercy for me.

I continued in this state of mind several days and the agitation of my mind in my wakeful hours disturbed my sleep and caused many frightful dreams in one of which I thought the devil had actually come in the shape of a great eagle and was carrying me off in his talons and I said it was just. I do not recollect from this time anything very distinctly of the state of my mind but that horror subsided & I never felt it again. Tho I felt anxious about the salvation of my soul and wondered at my stupidity yet could never again get those horrors of mind which I had felt before.

Before spring my father moved over to the west side of the North river. I became more conversant with other boys and in a measure forgot the concerns of my soul.

My father had taught me the evils of using profane language and I was never much addicted to it and it appeared very horrible when I heard others use it.

I had just entered my 17th year when my father died & my mother went back to Greenriver. My helth was poor for nearly a year & I lived with my grandfather and gave my mind considerably to study and in the fall when I was 20 went up to Pittstown and kept school that winter. Staid there the next summer & in the fall went home - found the need of more learning - studied the surveyor's art that winter and in the month of March went 4 weeks to Dr. Porter's school & studied Geography and English grammar — the next winter went to that school 4 months & studied Latin & I think the time I went to Dr. Porter's school was as long as all that I had ever been to school before in my life.

The next spring which must have been in the year 1790 went up to Reuport in Vermont and taught school one year. Then came back to Greenriver staid that summer and in the fall came to Freehold (now Cairo) in the county of Greene —taught school that year near the Bowery creek three months then went up the creek to the next district and taught there two years then went to Akree district and taught there eight years 4 years summer and winter and 4 years only in winter.

Then went to Cairo village and taught fifteen months then taught in the Akree district 4 months more.

After coming here to Greene kept, as near as I can recollect, 7 years in this district then went & kept one winter at the corners & then another winter here after which time I gave up the school for several years.

I was about 23 years old when I went to Vermont. My mind was occupied with various matters & I thought but little on the subject of religion—was fond of young company— of vain amusements and idle recreations. Such a manner od spending my time appeared to me then in a manner innocent but I have since view'd highly criminal.

When I was about 30 years old & had a family my mind was again called up to the subject of religion. I looked back upon my past life with disapprobation; felt self condemned that I had spent so much of my life in sin and vanity, had been so unthankful to God my creator & ungrateful to Christ my Saviour, but felt not that horror which I had experienced in my childhood. I resolved now to live a new life, made a publick profession of religion & united with the church & thru' the mercy of God am preserved alive to the 67th year of my age. And when I look back on my past life I find nothing to boast of, much to humble my pride, many things to repent of, innumerable blessings to be thankful for & losses, trials, disappointments and afflictions to be numbered among my greatest blessings and I can truly say with the Patriarchs few and evil have the days of the years of my life been.

Rev. John Spencer, the first Congregational missionary to the Holland Purchase was born May 24, 1758 either in Connecticut or Spencertown, N. Y. He moved to Worcester, Otsego Co., soon after the Revolution and from there to Canadaway in what is now known as Sherman about 1807. His opportunities for education were limited to the common schools. He said of himself that he was educated in the Continental Army in which he was first enrolled as a private and afterwards promoted from the ranks for gallantry and was Aide-de-Camp to Col. Willets. He was licensed to preach in 1800 and in 1801 was ordained. He had been a deacon of the Congregational Church at Worcester.

His first preaching place in Sheridan was at the house of Orsamus Holmes. The first religious service being held in 1807. He located his family on the Main Road, on the farm owned in 1902 by William Elliott. The first religious society in Sheridan formed Nov. 18, 1809, had eight original members, among them being his wife Rebecca ——————.

He served as a Lieut. in Capt. Peter Van Rensselaer's Co., Col. Marinus Willets Regt. New York Levies which was organized at Fort Herkimer Oct. 7, 1781.

After his marriage to Huldah, Jirah moved to the Town of Nanticoke, Broome Co. and bought 304 acres of heavy timber. To this tract he added by purchase from time to time until he owned over 1300 acres. It was Jirah's program to clear 20 acres each year, for sowing to wheat and rye. From the timber he felled, he sold bark delivered at the road for 87½¢ per cord. He generally made about 1000 lbs. of maple sugar each year. To contain the sap, he used buckets & also troughs hewn from red beech logs cut into 3 ft. lengths & split down the middle. He exchanged 750 lbs. of sugar for a buggy, & 325 lbs. for a stove-interesting examples of the barter that was common practice in the early 19th. century. He served one term as a justice of the peace, but refused to serve another. However, many came to him afterward for legal advice.

About 1796, Isaac's father, "Deacon" Amos Spencer, moved with most of his family from Hillsdale, Mass.(?), to the Town of Maryland, Otsego Co., N. Y., where he homesteaded a farm in the Schenevus Creek Valley, about half-way between the present Villages of Colliers and Maryland.

In the year 1807, when Isaac was 16 years old and his brother, John, was 18, they decided to leave their father's homestead and journey west - why, we can only guess at this late date. They undoubtedly wanted farms of their own, but considering their ages, their primary motivation was very likely a desire for change and new country.

In any event, they walked as far as Cortland, co., N. Y., where the area apparently pleased them. They considered buying a portion of the flats where the City of Cortland now stands, but evidently thought that the land in question was inferior to that in the nearby hills, where the timber was immense, for they finally bought 360 acres, two miles northwest of Blodgett Mills and six miles from Cortland. (Again, considering the ages of the two boys, it would seem that their father, Amos, must have given them when they left home at least enough money for a down-payment on land).

Isaac and John found themselves in possession of large stands of hardwood timber, which had to be cleared away before the land could be used for farming purposes. However, with money scarce, it was unthinkable that so much felled timber should be wasted. They cast about for a suitable market, and finally decided that the best profit could be obtained by converting it into charcoal. The charcoal was hauled by ox team to Homer, a distance of eight miles, where it was bought by an axe factory.

The brothers also made about 3,000 pounds of maple sugar each spring, for marketing.

Eventually, they divided their land, John taking 200 acres, and Isaac 160, On his farm, Isaac built a log house to which soon thereafter he brought his bride, Nancy, daughter of Jirah Peabody who lived near Blodgett Mills.

Isaac and John were both men of powerful physique, with strong convictions of right and wrong. They were noted for their piety. Their homes were open to ministers of all denominations and the Reform Methodists held conferences in their barn.

At the time of her death, she was an assistant principal of a Junior High School, and was in line for a principalship. She apparently lived a rather sophisticated life, with considerable travel abroad in the summers, and a wide acquaintance with the theatre, opera, symphony and literature.

Mostly from records of Floyd Mallory Shumway.

Sands Shumway was the son of Allen DeWitt & Eunice (Weager) Shumway; Jane Ophelia Mallory, was the dau. of William & Eliza (Todd) Mallory of Toddsville, Otsego Co., N.Y.

Marjorie (MacMinn) Rabling was from St. Louis, Mo.
Dwight Robinson was son of Major Gen'l. Rennslaer W. & Catherine (Chase) Robinson.
Mary Eliza Babcock was dau. of Richardson & Mary Babcock, all of Otsego Co.

Herbert Eugene Spencer spent his boyhood on his father's farm, Town of Maryland. As a young man, he attended the Franklin Institute, Village of Franklin, Delaware County. (In its day, the Franklin Institute was high regarded.)

At a later date, Herbert studied law at the offices of General S. S. Burnside in Oneonta. Not caring for the law, he left his studies to enter what can best be described as the lumber business, i.e., he held a number of positions, all of which had to do with lumber or its processing.

Early in their married life, he and his wife moved to Minnesota where he was employed in some capacity in the lumbering industry that flourished there in his time. After some years, the left the Mid-West for New York City, where he became a supervisor in a piano factory. They returned to Oneonta around the turn of the century, and Herbert became superintendent of the Briggs Lumber Company of that city.

On Apr. 11, 1883, he enlisted in the 3rd. Separate Co., Infantry, National Guard, served 5 years, and was discharged as sergeant.

From time to time, Herbert obtained commissions to design houses. Their lines were quite clean, being pleasingly free from the "ginger-bread", gables, and what-not with which most houses of the early nineteen-hundreds were loaded. Probably the best example of his work was the house he designed for himself at 8 Otsego St., Oneonta.

He was deeply interested in American History, particularly that of New York State. His knowledge of early Otsego County was remarkable.

Herbert was a tall, powerful man, with a quiet sense of humor. He seldom became angry, and it is doubtful if he ever said an unkind thing about anyone. He considered himself to be the head of his part of the Spencer family - a patriarch in the tradition of Gerard, John, Ithamar and Amos - and he took the responsibility very seriously.

He retired when he was about 60, and from then on he spent 2 or 3 days a week driving up and down the highway between Oneonta and East Worcester, calling on relatives.

"I used to ride along with him in the summers, when I was a boy" says F. M. Shumway, his grandson, "and as I look back on these trips, he must have served his relatives as a combined legal and investment advisor, veterinarian, doctor, marriage counsellor etc. If he had been clumsy or officious about it, he could have been quite a pest. However, he was so tactful and unassuming that everyone liked him and welcomed his guidance."

Herbert took a special interest in the family cemetery on the Amos Spencer homestead farm. As long as he lived, he tried to see that it was kept in good condition, doing some of the work himself.

Herbert was an excellent violinist. Toward the end of his life, he composed marches as a hobby. Having written one, he would persuade some town or city in Central New York to accept it as an official march.

Altogether, Herbert Spencer was a very outstanding person.

CANADICE IN THE EARLY DAYS
From Ontario County Times starting Mar. 22, 1876

#4. The first grain cradle was made by Samuel B. Spencer in 1811.

#5. Mar. 29, 1876. The Willsons cleared all the land above the road now cultivated and some below and in the fall of 1811 sold out to Ezra Spencer and went to Livonia. One year after Ezra took possession of Ezekiel Willson's cabin, his uncle Elias Spencer came from Spencertown in Columbia Co. and moved in to that made vacant by the removal of Frederick. The advent of Ezra into town we shall speak of when we come to that of his father, Samuel B. Spencer. The first purchase of Ezra was the south 50 acres of the present Costello farm and the balance went into the hands of his brother Otis, then Orra, who afterwards exchanged with Ezra for the place now owned by Allen B. Becker.
When Samuel B. Spencer left what was called in an early day "Frog Point" of which hereafter we shall speak, he built another house on the farm under consideration in which he lived for a number of years. In 1814 Ezra put up a part of a framed house and in after years added to it, which was mostly demolished a few years ago to make room for the present one, and in which he lived at the time of his death in 1841. Elias left his cabin on the north half of the farm and moved into a portion of Ezra's house, where he lived until the death of his wife, when he went to live with his son George C. He died in Slab City. The children of Elias were Asa, George C., Sydney, Ambrose, Alexander, Erastus, William, Nancy and Harriet. Asa, Ambrose, Erastus, William, George C. and Nancy are in Grand Rapids, Mich. Sydney lost a leg early in life, was a shoemaker and died in town. Harriet died in the Black River country, and Alexander left town when about 28 years of age and his whereabouts were never known to his relations. George C. was a man of considerable note ——— and after he went west put on the ministerial robes. Ezra Spencer's farm after his death passed into the hands of Robert Stephenson, Haskell Gilbert and David Hoppough.

Apr. 12, 1876. Homer Blake of Manlius, Onondaga Co. mar. Lois Spencer, a sister of Samuel B. Spencer.

#12. May 31, 1876. According to a letter written from Armada, Mich. to us by the Rev. Ira Spencer, the last survivor of the family of Samuel B. Spencer, a few days before his decease, the Spencers were so numerous in the land of their nativity that the village of Spencertown on Myrtle Creek in the present town of Austerlitz in Col. Co. was named after them and that there were 11 persons in his father's family who left that place and came to this town on May 9, 1810 and pitched their tent on the "Point". The children were then just 9; but Olive who mar. Allen Goold and died as we said in our tenth article in 1846, was born in town in Oct. the same year they came. The children were Ezra, Orra, Lorenzo, Ira, Samuel J., Otis, Cyrus, Matilda and Horace. Lorenzo died in Illinois. Otis, Cyrus and Horace died in town as did Matilda who was the wife of Nathan Beers. Samuel J. and Ira went to Michigan and both died there. Ira was 85 at the time of his death the 5th. of Feb. last.
Samuel B. Spencer was in some respects a peculiar man and young Samuel was more than "a chip from the old block". He loved his glass "amazingly" and was the poet laureate at all the quiltings, weddings, raisings and logging bees in town.

Joseph Spencer the last brother of Spencer family from Spencertown came a year after the others settled on the north part of Stout place, lived there 8 years, sold and went to Whetstone Brook in Town of Richmond thence to Allegany Co. where in after years he was found dead and partially devoured by his hogs.

Aug. 9, 1876. His children were Cynthia who died in town; Sophia went to Penna.; Elias died in Macomb Co., Mich.; John W. in Canadice in 1876; Orra died in Canadice; Philander living Armada, 1876; David went to Black river country to visit his mother's relatives and there learned that his grandfather was an Indian, came home, packed up and disappeared.

Benjamin Spencer, son of Abner & unknown 1st. wife-Spencer, was born ca 1770, possibly in Columbia Co., N. Y. The name of his wife is not known. He apparently could not have been the Benjamin in 1790 census with 1-1-4, but is the one in 1800 with 3 females under 10, himself and wife, 26-45, tho he should have been given a son. He is not mentioned in 1825 census. Was a witness to the will of Asa Carter, July 5, 1808. Benjamin & Hannah Spencer on Est. list of mbrs of 1st. Bapt. Church at Truthville. Also he & Adeline M. "Grandfather Elijah Spencer was the son of Abner Spencer. The children of Great Grandfather Abner Spencer were John, Jacob, Isaac, Enos, Abram, David, Polly and Lucinda. The above named were half brothers and sisters of Grandfather Elijah Spencer he (Gf.) had one bentbrother whose name was Benjamin. I think Grandfather must have been the youngest of the family for this reason. He was adopted when an infant six weeks of age, by Elijah Menter and was brought up by him, as also was, my Grandmother Elizabeth Bradford. Grandfather Menter used to say his oldest son married his oldest daughter. Grandmother died in Apr. 1805 leaving four children my Mother being about four years of age. Grandfather later married Mary Carter daughter of Asa Carter.

The children of Asa Carter were, Jessie, Levi, Amasa and Joseph, Annie, Betsy, Polly, Elizabeth, and Mary (GM Spencer.)

I Have no data just simply the names just as I have written them to you. Dear Cousin you are there in Washington The Revolutionary Record must be there perhaps by having the Family names you may be able to prove that you are eligible to become a Daughter of the Revolution. I am truly sorry you did not have your father help you. He probably know, or at least had his idea. I never know the Carters. Uncle Joseph Carter I think lived in Michigan Grandma staid with him for a year before Aunt Susan Hanks went west.

There are also, other lines; your Mother was Celestia Rice. The Rices may have had ancestors in the Revolutionary War. Grandfather Elijah Spencer was born in 1772 and was therefore bout four years old when "Independence was declared in 1776."

This is from a letter written after 1911 at Angelica, N. Y. and found in Cloudcroft, N. M. The writer's name is missing and forgotten. The original page was sent to me. I had it photostated before I returned it. Every word is clear. Elijah must have been the 2nd child of 1st. wife.

Much of this information from the family Bible belonging to Mrs. Amelia S. Graney, of Oneonta, N. Y. It is rather confusing as there is a good deal of Colegrove material in the Bible, and difficult to know which is Colegrove and which is Spencer. Also 1850 and 1855 census records for Town of Fulton, Schoharie Co., N.Y.

Will Book A-251.

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN. I, Jeremiah Spencer being in my right mind and judgment and being also sensible of the uncertainty of Life and the certainty of Death, Do hereby make this my last Will & Testament as follows--

FIRST. I appoint for my administrators Stephen Johnson & Stephen Allen & hereby authorize them to pay all my Legal demands that may be against me at my decease also my funeral charges all of which is to be paid out of my personal property. The said Administrators are also authorized to cause the portions assigned to the Legatees hereinafter mentioned to be paid as is hereinafter specified. I bequeath to my beloved Wife Lydia Spencer as Long as she continues my Widow the one undivided half of One hundred & eighty nine acres of Land (being the same that was formerly owned by Stephen Johnson David Hammond & Lazarus Vaughn) & at her decease or at the time she ceases to be my Widow the said land to be equally divided among my beloved sons Samuel & Scotter Spencer. And the said Samuel & Scotter Spencer are hereby bound to pay Two hundred dollars within four years after my decease to my Beloved Daughters Rhoda Cummins, Cloey Fuller, Jemimah Botholl, Betsey Wilson, Lydia Fuller & Melissa "Meeker". The said Two hundred dollars to be divided equally among the said Daughters. In case my sons Samuel & Scotter Spencer pay their proportion on the thirty acres of Land contracted by John LaFargo to myself & my son Martin Spencer theirs they are to have to have their equal proportions of the said Land. I further bequeath to my beloved wife all the household furniture One Cooking stove, three fleeces of Wool per year and one Cow. The said Samuel & Scotter Spencer shall have the privilege of occupying and working the said Land which is bequeathed to my beloved wife Lydia Spencer & they are bound to provide their equal proportions, wood, wool and the cow for my said wife. The personal property that may remain after my debts are all paid I bequeath equally to my sons Martin, Samuel & Scotter Spencer. The Note for $200.00 signed by my son Martin dated Clayton April 28, 1837 is to be given to said Martin at my decease. It is hereby expressly understood & intended that my sons Samuel & Scotter Spencer are hereby bound to provide for & make my beloved wife every way comfortable in sickness & in health & the proffits arrising from the said Land bequeathed to my wife they are to have after making my beloved wife thus comfortable. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand & seal this nineteenth day of May Eighteen hundred & thirty seven.

Jeremiah Spencer.
